From 11 am to 3 pm
on Saturday, June 11th,
come on down to Portland's
Working Waterfront, right along Commercial Street, and take a walk along our historic piers and wharves!

Rain or shine, you're invited to meander up and down the wharves and piers that have defined Portland for hundreds of years. Dozens of restaurants and shops will be open, including many maritime businesses that rarely, if ever, open their doors to the public. Each will have special offers just for today!

Here's your opportunity to get a glimpse into the real Portland...the water side of our great city. So stretch your legs on June 11th and Walk the Working Waterfront!

Need more information?

- Look for the orange flags that indicate participating businesses and special offers!
- Stop by the info booth at the head of Union Wharf!
- Visit oldportfestival.net for an up-to-date listing of special offers at each business!

Lots to see and do – and eat! – during Walk the Working Waterfront!

See other side

HOBSON'S WHARF

Famous for Becky's Diner – their logo even says "Becky's on Hobson's Wharf."

- Aqua Diving Academy – from 11 am to 2 pm, take your picture with a mermaid or giant lobster!

WRIGHT'S WHARF

Home to the United States Coast Guard.

- "Ocracoke" – See and tour the 110-foot U.S. Coast Guard cutter, "Ocracoke"!

PORTLAND FISH PIER

At the Portland Fish Exchange, fish is weighed, sorted, and auctioned off. Farther back are great views of the harbor.

- Portland Fish Exchange – See Gulf of Maine seafood as it comes off of the boat!
- Free Range Fish and Lobster – Tour the cutting room, see how your fish is prepared!
- Bristol Seafood – Sample cooked seafood, and learn about the business!
- Portland Harbor Master – Take a tour of the Harbor Master's boat!
- Vessel Services – Tour the ice plant and see how oceangoing boats are supplied!

MERRILL'S WHARF

The old Cumberland Cold Storage warehouse is now home to the Pierce Atwood law firm. Look to their left and you'll see lobster boats still tied up.

- Browne Trading Company – Savor in-store tastings of fancy fish!
- The King's Head – Show this map and get a pint of beer at happy hour prices!
- Pierce Atwood – A special display at the front door shows the history and transformation of this iconic building!
- Fishing net gear – Walk to the end of the wharf, and you may see fishermen drying their net gear!

UNION WHARF

First built in 1793, Union Wharf today has retail establishments...a marine electronics dealer...a chandlery...an architect's office...a 208-foot oil-spill-cleanup vessel...and a lot more.

- Liquid Riot – From 12-3 pm, show your map and get 2 free beer samplers of your choice!
- Black Tie Catering – Come by to sample a free appetizer or pastry!
- Maine Lobster Direct – Enter the raffle giveaway: 5 tickets for 2 lobsters each!

WIDGERY WHARF

Built in the late 1700s, Widgery is chockablock with shacks, lobster traps, nets, buoys, and working gear everywhere you turn.

- Widgery Wharf – Walk down Portland's oldest wharf, see authentic fish houses!

CHANDLER'S WHARF

Once called "Central Wharf," Chandler's 150+ condominiums stretch out over the harbor.

- Chandler's Wharf – Walk halfway back, there's a little public park you can relax in.

LONG WHARF

The floating restaurant that everyone knows as "DiMillo's" began as a car ferry, "The New York," back in 1941.

- Portland Discovery Land & Sea Tours – at 12 noon, take a "working waterfront" harbor cruise, $15 adults, $10 kids!
- DiMillo's on the Water – Sample seafood specialties right on Commercial Street!
- Portland Lobster Company – Enjoy the happy hour pricing, plus free music!

PORTLAND PIER

J's Oyster House is a popular eatery up-front. Farther back is New Meadows Lobster. In-between: condos and offices.

- New Meadows Lobster – See giant lobsters in the tank house! Plus, a lemonade stand!

CUSTOM HOUSE WHARF

Take the bumpy, cobblestone walk to fresh fish at Harbor Fish Market, classic meals at the Porthole Restaurant, and refurbished sailcloth at Sea Bags.

- Andy's Old Port Pub – Friends of Casco Bay will have a membership table inside: join FOCB and Andy's will give you a free beer!
- Porthole Restaurant & Pub – Discounts on lobster rolls and, from 1-3 pm, special tastings of Truly Spiked & Sparkling water!
- Sea Bags – Enter a drawing to win a Medium Navy Anchor Tote!

MAINE WHARF

The new Portland Science Center and Scales restaurant share a building on what was once called Randall & McAllister's Wharf, where coal was stored.

- Atlantic Cup – Be wharfside at 12 noon as the Atlantic Cup racers depart the dock!
- Portland Science Center – Enter the raffle for free tickets to the upcoming exhibit, "Titanic: The Artifact Exhibition"!
- El Galeon – At the wharf's end, a rare opportunity to see a reproduction of a 16th century Spanish vessel!
- Flatbread Company – Come and enjoy free samples of Local Farmer's Market Salad!

MAINE STATE PIER

Casco Bay Lines ferries depart from Maine State Pier all day long, crisscrossing Casco Bay.

- City of Portland fireboat – Tour the fireboat at the head of the pier!
- Casco Bay Lines – See the new Puffin, sculpted by Bernard Langlais, now on display!
- Portland Schooner Co. – Show your map, and your kids 12 and under sail FREE on the 10:30 am and 1 pm two-hour windjammer cruises!
